Teacher(s): handler	The Course	Student
Time:	Organizer	Course I

Student:
Course Dates:

 \bigcirc

United States History

United States History, students examine the time period from Reconstruction to the present. They study the social studies areas of geography, economics, government, and civics, and culture/society.

Course Questions:

- 1. How have American citizens exercised their rights and assumed their responsibilities as members of a democratic society?
- 2. How has the American political system functioned and affected the course of American history?
- 3. How have America's social systems developed and changed to meet the needs of American citizens?
- 4. How have the people from many countries, race, ethnic groups, and religious traditions contributed to the growth, development, and culture of America?
- 5. How has America's economic system developed, changed, and responded to the needs of American citizens?
- 6. How has geography affected the development of the United States and the lives of its people?
- 7. How has the United States been shaped by events, trends, conditions, issues, and decisions of the past?

1		$\overline{}$
	()
	\ \	ノ

Insert text here.

The Content Standards to be addressed in the course are outlined in the Program of Studies for high school United States history and the Core Content for Assessment at the 11th grade.

Performance Level Descriptions will be used to design assessments so that students may have ample opportunities to demonstrate proficient social studies performance.

